CAREER SUMMARY

Results-oriented Communications, Program Operations, and Portfolio Management Professional with a proven track record within the UN System (WMO, UNHCR). Developed the digital architecture utilized by WMO to monitor global portfolios of 100+ initiatives, ensuring rigorous compliance through specialized SharePoint and Drupal environments. Currently advancing technical capabilities through Postgraduate Professional Training in Data Science to improve the monitoring of climate and hydromet datasets. Skilled in managing large-scale data migrations and translating complex humanitarian data into high-impact advocacy. I am prepared to leverage my expertise in WMO operational workflows to streamline the delivery and stakeholder engagement goals of the SOFF.

CORE COMPETENCIES

- Data & Knowledge Management (KM) Architecture: Experience designing SharePoint and Drupal environments, metadata structuring, and digital repository governance. Focused on building the infrastructure required to track global project lifecycles and institutional compliance. Skilled in distilling "Lessons Learned" from global operations into structured institutional knowledge and technical publications.
- Climate Analytics & Visualization: Ability to distill complex climate and hydromet data into structured institutional knowledge. Utilizes Adobe Creative Suite and Canva to produce data-driven publications for global stakeholders.
- Portfolio Coordination: Developed and engineered the tracking systems used by project managers to coordinate updates across 15+ global field operations and multicultural teams.
- Digital Agility & Automation: Knowledge of automated workflow systems and RPA principles. Capable of building predictive models and digital monitoring frameworks to streamline operational delivery.
- Strategic Communications: Ability to communicate technical insights to non-technical stakeholders, fostering evidence-based decision-making through briefing papers and advocacy materials.
